Once again, Dolce & Gabbana has renewed its partnership with the prestigious Longines Athina Onassis Horse Show, which will be held in the picturesque setting of Pampelonne Beach in Ramatuelle, on the Saint-Tropez peninsula, from May 31 to June 2. For the third consecutive year, Dolce & Gabbana's colors (red and white roses, bright yellow, sky blue and Mediterranean blue) will enhance the beauty of the Côte d'Azur and the well-known, exclusive equestrian competition during the three-day event.

Dolce & Gabbana will open a pop-up shop for the event with its clothing and accessory collections for men, women, and children, where you can enjoy an exclusive shopping experience. Refreshing women's pieces are designed with printed roses in shades of red, white and lilac on a light background. The soft-colored men's collection is ideal for refined elegance. Clothing and accessories are also available in a 'Mini Me' version for babies and little girls.

There will be a specific space in the VIP area for Pastificio Di Martino, representing its 'Made in Italy' excellence for more than 100 years. Thanks to Dolce & Gabbana's creativity, the Di Martino pasta packages have been revitalized, becoming genuine Italian post cards. The new packaging is a lively celebration of the symbolic dish of Italian gastronomic culture, with its Mediterranean patterns and settings. Every day in the Di Martino corner, chefs will alternate three different dishes based on Pasta di Gragnano, with thoughtful combinations of different types of pasta and toppings for diners' enjoyment.
